

My Mission

To provide the finest residential real estate services with uncompromising principles.

I Excel In:

- Residential Resale/New Construction
- First time home-buying
- Marketing strategies to get your home sold
- Negotiation Strategies
- Investments and second homes

My clients are some of the happiest and most knowledgeable home buyers and sellers in Jackson County today. That's because my first priority when meeting a new client is to find out how I can best help them. The insight I gain listening to you helps me to more accurately address your wants and needs.

I will provide you with the information you need to move through the process of buying or selling a home with the least possible stress or uncertainty. My belief is that knowledge of today's market leads to good decisions. When clients know what to expect at each step along the way, it makes the entire transaction more enjoyable for everyone.

My decision to enter the field of real estate after 15 years of teaching middle school evolved from my life-long love of houses, decorating, and my desire to be a part of a business that helps people achieve their goals. It was a natural transition from helping students succeed to helping families, couples and individuals make dreams come true.

When you want a Southern Oregon real estate professional who will dedicate themselves to getting the results you want, call me. I will help you find the right house – or the right buyer.

"Robin has been extremely helpful and very quick to respond to calls and questions. Very easy to work with."

- Tawnya Rose

"Robin has been an absolute pleasure to work with from the moment my husband and I met her. She is never too busy to help us find a property, and never loses her patience when we can't decide on one. She sold our last property within a week of going on the market! We have no plans of working with any other agent- Robin is the best there is!"

- Kelly Marquess, Office Manager and Property Renovater

"What can I say. she saw us through a very difficult buying process because of our situation, Government shutdown, VA bureaucracy and us sometimes not being so nice to while we were in the battle. Not to mention my language barrier with being involved in a complex sales process for me. She took her time to see that I understood all of the papers as best she could to me. I sure she wanted to lose her patience a few times with me, but she didn't. My husband and I are proud to now have her as a friend."

- Venera Elesky, Office Manager-Pedorthic Facility

"I have observed that Robin has an enthusiasm and genuine interest in helping her clients meet their needs. Her relationship with each client is important to her, and she goes the extra mile to provide premium service which helps make the process of buying and selling the best possible experience."
